dragon boat kids camp

The pdbc dragon boat kids camp offers coed youth (7-14) the opportunity to discover the exciting water sport of dragon boat in a fun, safe and positive day camp environment. Our knowledgeable and responsible counsellors deliver quality programming and instruction. All equipment is provided and no boating experience is required.

dragon boat program includes:

- watercraft safety education
- focus on basic instruction w/ technique + racing components
- active learning through participant-lead sessions
- 2 dragon boat paddling sessions/day, w/ personal instruction
- weekly fun regatta races and challenges

camp location:

- daily camper drop-off (9am) + pick-up (4pm) Progress Club Front St. Park (see map below) w/ activities at both Progress Frenchman's Bay East Park and Millennium Square in Pickering special features:

- Frenchman's Bay Watershed Rehabilitation workshop
- land sports + active games + crafts
- swimming at Petticoat Creek Conservation Area
- weekly bbq lunches & indoor rainy day programming
- custom pdbc dragon boat day camp t-shirt
- camper awards upon successful completion

camp safety considerations:

- First Aid/C.P.R. certified staff
- life jackets worn at all times in boats
- secure camper check in & out system
- age specific programming
- low camper: leader ratio

- OPEN HOUSE - SUN. MAY 11 - 11:00 AM - PROGRESS FRENCHMAN'S BAY EAST PARK -
